

Maternity Care Centre

The most important people for the maternity care centre are the new parents and their baby. We have a close and friendly working relationship with the Birth Centre midwives. This means you have a real team at your bedside. As far as possible the care is "tailor made", geared to your specific needs. The quality of care is guaranteed by the HKZ/ISO quality certificate.

